

Trip Leadership

Start Date & Wage:

$500 Compensation & Up to $400 to Cover Travel Fees

Why this position matters:

For A Child's Hope Foundation to make a difference, we need great people involved who are willing to contribute to the cause. The goal is to help lift the kids from surviving to thriving. These kids need donations that will allow them to obtain therapy, tutoring, quality caregivers, and participate in enrichment activities. One way to provide that is through a successful service trip, which happens when we have exceptional trip leaders. The trip leader position is one with many important responsibilities that should not be taken lightly.

What this role is all about:

A Child's Hope Foundation is looking for individuals who have exceptional leadership qualities, are extremely responsible, have great time management skills, and are looking to make a difference in others' lives. A trip leader will be responsible for safely carrying out trips, logistics, communication, managing money, pre-trip and post-trip communication, managing 45-50 volunteers per trip, and helping ACHF find volunteers who want to make a difference. This is a volunteer position, but you will receive $500 for each trip hosted, a travel reimbursement of up to $400, as well as the perk to bring two-four people at a discounted rate.

In short you will be responsible for:

- Trip Leaders must host a minimum of one trip per year
- Trip Leaders must attend bi-annual trainings
- Trip Leaders must respond to ACHF within 24 hours
- Trip Leaders must maintain all money for their trip - this includes picking up money from the office and dropping off deliverables one week post-trip
- Trip Leaders must maintain the characteristics connected to ACHF's mission
